

2012 Point Structure

The A Feature win is worth 40 points with each subsequent position worth one point less with 24th position in A Feature worth 17 points. If more than 24 cars start the feature, all positions from 24th back will receive 17 points. If a B Feature is ran, first non-transferring driver receives 16 points with each subsequent position receiving one point less with 6th position back receiving 11 points. Driver must be on track and take the green flag to be scored. No other points will be awarded.
